

Notes 3

---

mkdir

Definition

Used for creating a single directory or multiple directories.

Usage

- `mkdir + the name of the directory`

touch

Definition

Is used for creating files

Usage

- `touch + list`

rm

Definition

Removes files

Usage

- `rm -r`

rmdir

Definition

Remove empty directories

Usage

- `rm -r + directory name or directory absolute path`

mv

Definition

Moves and renames directories

Usage

- `mv + source + destination`

cp

Definition

cp copies files/directories from a source to a destination

Usage

- `cp + files to copy + destination`
- `cp Downloads/wallpapers.zip Pictures/`
- `cp -r + directory to copy + destination`

file

Definition

Determines the file type of a file

Usage

- `file filename`
- `file -b filename`

pdftinfo

Definition

Displays information about pdf files

Usage

- `pdftinfo filename.pdf`

mediainfo

Definition

Command line utility to display information about audio/video files

Usage

- `mediainfo example.png`
- `mediainfo -f example.png`
- `mediainfo --output=HTML example.png > file.html`

exiv2

Definition

Image metadata manipulation tool

Usage

- `exiv2 [option] [action] [file]`

exiftool

Definition

Read and write meta information in files

Usage

- `see man page`